

Shelter & Transitional Housing

– For Single Women –

Salvation Army Shelter

630 E. Washington Ave.

608-250-2226 or 608-250-2222

Drop-in shelter is available nightly. Dinner at 5:00pm and Intake at 6:30pm. Space available on 1st-come, 1st-serve basis. IDs will be requested.

Domestic Abuse Intervention Services (DAIS)

251-4445 or 1-800-747-4045

Short term emergency shelter for survivors of domestic abuse and their children.

Native American Statewide Domestic Abuse Shelter Project

800-236-7660

Located outside of Dane Co., this is a short term emergency shelter for survivors of domestic abuse and their children.

No Fees Charged

ARC

608-278-2300

- ARC-Dayton St. (608-241-7616): A 3 mo. residential program for female offenders (previously incarcerated or paroled). Must be referred by P.O.
- ARC Maternal & Infant program (608-223-9033): for adult pregnant female offenders. 6 mo. program. Women must be referred by P.O. or be in ARC's other non-residential programs.
- ARC House (608-283-6430): For women with criminal conviction and diagnosed substance abuse problem. A four month AODA* residential program. Women must be referred by P.O.

The Elizabeth House

608-259-1605

A 6-9 month residential program for women ages 18-25 pregnant with their first child.

YWCA

101 E. Mifflin Street,
608-257-1436

- Low-cost single room occupancy (SRO) $378 apartments for single women.
- Third Street: For single women in last trimester of pregnancy.

Seton House

1301 Williamson St.
608-819-1061

Transitional housing program for homeless unaccompanied women. Must have steady source of income.

Porchlight, Inc.

306 N. Brooks St.
608-257-2534

Low-cost temporary housing.

Programs for single women include:

- Single Individual Housing
- Brooks St.
- Spring St.: for eligible single Veterans. 30% of income is charged, but no income is needed.

Fees Charged

YWCA

- 101 E. Mifflin Street, (608) 257-1436
- Shelter for homeless teenage girls, if registered with the Salvation Army.

Briarpatch

1955 Atwood Ave
608-251-6211

Temporary shelter (1 to 2 nights up to 2 weeks at a time) for teens (age 12-17) who need respite from their homes, or runaway or homeless youth.

For Teens, No Fees

* AODA = Alcohol or Drug Abuse

For single women with AODA* issues or mental illness

Porchlight, Inc.

306 N. Brooks St., 608-257-2534

- Safe Haven: for people with persistent mental illness
- Sober Living: for people in recovery from AODA*, 1mo.-1yr. sobriety required
- STABLE: for women with mental health issues

Holly House

608-250-2229

Transitional Housing Program for single women who have addressed or be in treatment for any AODA or mental health (at least 2-3 months sober). Program fees between $245-305/mo, must have a referral from a homeless service agency.

Madison Place Oxford House

6404 Maywick Drive, Madison, WI 53718
608-279-5535

Sober co-op-like housing for women who are at least 30 days sober, or who are re-entering after prison. Fees include everything but food. No time limit. Rent is $90/wk. Sober deposit of $200.

Hope Haven

425 W. Johnson St.
608-251-8881

30-45 day living arrangement for adult men and women in need of 24 hour supervision due to AODA*. Fees are charged based on sliding scale.

Colvin Manor

425 W. Johnson St., 608-257-0627

Transitional living for sober individuals who have completed a residential treatment program for AODA*. Fees are charged based on a sliding scale.

Women in Transition

2842 Moland St., 608-244-2046

9-bed house for women with mental illness who are on SSI/SSDI. Women must be sober. Transitions to permanent housing.

Tellurian

300 Femrite Drive, Monona

• Acewood House (608-244-1359) and Crawford House (608-277-8768): Group homes for single individuals with severe and persistent mental illness. Referrals should be directed to Mental Health Center (608-280-2600).

• Transitional Housing Program (608-222-7311, ext. 215): For homeless individuals with chronicle homelessness. Goal is to transition people to permanent housing.

• Tellurian Permanent Housing Program (608-222-7311, ext. 224): For homeless individuals who have severe and persistent mental illness. Fees are 30% of adjusted income.

• McGovern Treatment Center (608-222-7311): Treatment facility for individuals with substance abuse problems needing residential treatment. Fees charged; some Dane County funding available for people without resources.

Housing Initiatives

608-277-8330

Permanent community based housing for homeless people with severe mental illness who are unable to live on their own without supportive services. Must have referral from case manager. Waiting list is long.

Subsidized Housing

Some housing is available to people who have minor children, who are disabled or who are over the age of 62. Contact the HHD with questions or for applications (608-242-7406).

Wisconsin Association of Homes and Services for the Aging

608-255-7060

A referral service for seniors in need of non-profit long-term care, to organizations around Wisconsin.

Other
Housing
Solutions

* AODA = Alcohol or Drug Abuse