About the Tenant Resource Center

The Tenant Resource Center is a non-profit membership organization with a small staff that relies primarily on volunteers to provide housing counseling, mediation services and office assistance. The majority of the Tenant Resource Center's funding comes from Dane County and the US Department of Housing and Urban Development, with additional funding from the City of Madison and Community Shares of Wisconsin. The remainder of our funding comes from memberships, donations, workshops and publication sales.

Funded in part by the Associated Students of Madison. ASM does not necessarily endorse the beliefs or actions of this organization.

The Tenant Resource Center is a non-profit, membership organization dedicated to promoting positive relations between rental housing consumers and providers throughout Wisconsin. By providing information and referrals, education about rental rights and responsibilities, and access to conflict resolution, we empower the community to obtain and maintain quality affordable housing.
